Members' Show in March

Ten years ago, local artists opened Two Rivers Gallery to share the works of its members. Our mission was to provide a place for local and regional artists to show their works, promote the local visual arts environment for emerging and established artists, and help all develop their full potential. This year our annual meeting will be a Meet and Greet during First Friday where you can visit with our Board members and get the latest information about our progress and future plans for 2019.

Showing at Cottage Inn

Artists presently showing at the Cottage Inn Restaurant are listed below. Participants trade out their paintings on the 4th Wednesday of each month at 10:30 a.m. This month we trade on Feb. 27. If you would like to show there, the agreement and labels can be found at our 'Information board' behind the front door. Let us know if you are interested as there is limited space.

Thanks to Local Wineries

Thank you to all of the generous wineries for the wines you have provided over the last ten years. Two Rivers Gallery will no longer be able to promote your wines, as its 501c3 sponsor, Robert Graves Gallery, has pulled out of participation with us. Our guests at our monthly art receptions will miss trying local wines, and we will miss working with you. Thanks again for helping us celebrate North Central Washington arts and artists.

Notes of Interest

- We have had to replace the key vault at the front door. It has a new pass code. Carole Hiatt will give it to you when it is your turn to docent.
- The Pybus has a contest due in June. Focus of the painting would be "Best of Pybus."
- Photo Contest NCW Audubon Society. 3 of your best bird photos can be entered. Check these posters at our gallery if interested.
- We have a mini art exhibit at the Numerica Performing Arts Center April 13. The gallery is invited to show a dozen artworks on exhibit.

The World's Best

The Wenatchee World is asking its readers to vote for your choice in local businesses. Two Rivers Gallery has been chosen for several years as the Best Gallery in the WORLD (the Wenatchee World that is). Please vote for us by scanning & voting or voting at Wenatchee World's website: world.com/worldbest/ by February 17.

Entry for March-April, 2019

Mark your calendar for February 22 and 23, 11 a.m.-3 p.m. It is a chance for all members to be the featured artist for one month. The annual Members' Show will feature at least one of every member's art works in the front rooms. When you bring your art, place one of your 3 paintings in the front and bring two to the back table for Entry along with a check for showing plus your membership fee for 2019. By now you should have received the Prospectus (Calendar of events, See page 3 of this newsletter).

Website in Progress

Jen Evenhus, the gallery website coordinator has been working to make your experience at our website a rewarding experience that shows off our talented members. Photographer Marc Dille has photographed one example of each of your works on exhibit during January and February. Marc will shoot the works after every main Entry. Thanks to these two talented artists for their time and special talents. Check us out.

[Notes, continued]

- Jean Okeeffe and Ted Demarce have each volunteered to provide 2 artworks each for the Wenatchee Symphony Orchestra and the Wenatchee Chamber of Commerce
- Dan McConnell had another political cartoon in the Sunday Wenatchee World
- The city has provided the gallery with an annual complimentary business license.
