

TWO RIVERS GALLERY

FIRST FRIDAY

Featuring Artist-Photographer

Jean O'Keeffe

February 7, 2020

FIRST FRIDAY AT
Two Rivers ART GALLERY

FEATURING...
Artist-Photographer
JEAN O'KEEFFE

Jean has carried a camera since being handed an instamatic at a family reunion when she was twelve years old. She currently shoots with a Canon 5DSR, and uses a photograph as the primary source document for most of her digital work. With minimal formal training, Jean utilizes various "darkroom" computer software programs and tools to develop images into creative expressions. She loves to experiment with artistic software that use layers, textures, filters, or composite images, and digitally "paint" with her Wacom tablet. Her favorite compositions include floral and landscapes.

February 7, 5-8pm
Music by guitarist Lance Tigner
Complimentary refreshments
Show runs through February.

Two Rivers Gallery is a non-profit artist-run gallery of over 100 members.

Welcome to my show!

Jean was interviewed by both the Wenatchee World and KPQ Radio for the opening. Jean and husband Lloyd met as photographers. Lloyd was a professional photographer working as a Fire and Explosion Investigator. They both grew up in Wenatchee and met in the Olympia area where she was an attorney.

Lance Tigner played soft tones on his guitar, says he enjoys playing for the gallery and the guests who come to our receptions. Lance has been volunteering to help middle schoolers this week during the Wenatchee Jazz Workshop. You'll find Lance playing at various venues in the valley. Thanks to our many volunteer musicians.

Welcome to membership. Sonia Ramsey entered her acrylic painting "White Cat" for the February Show.

All ages love to visit the gallery.

Betsy Loomis shows Jean a work she particularly enjoys.

Candice purchased two cards from the rack. She has attended our opening receptions for several years.

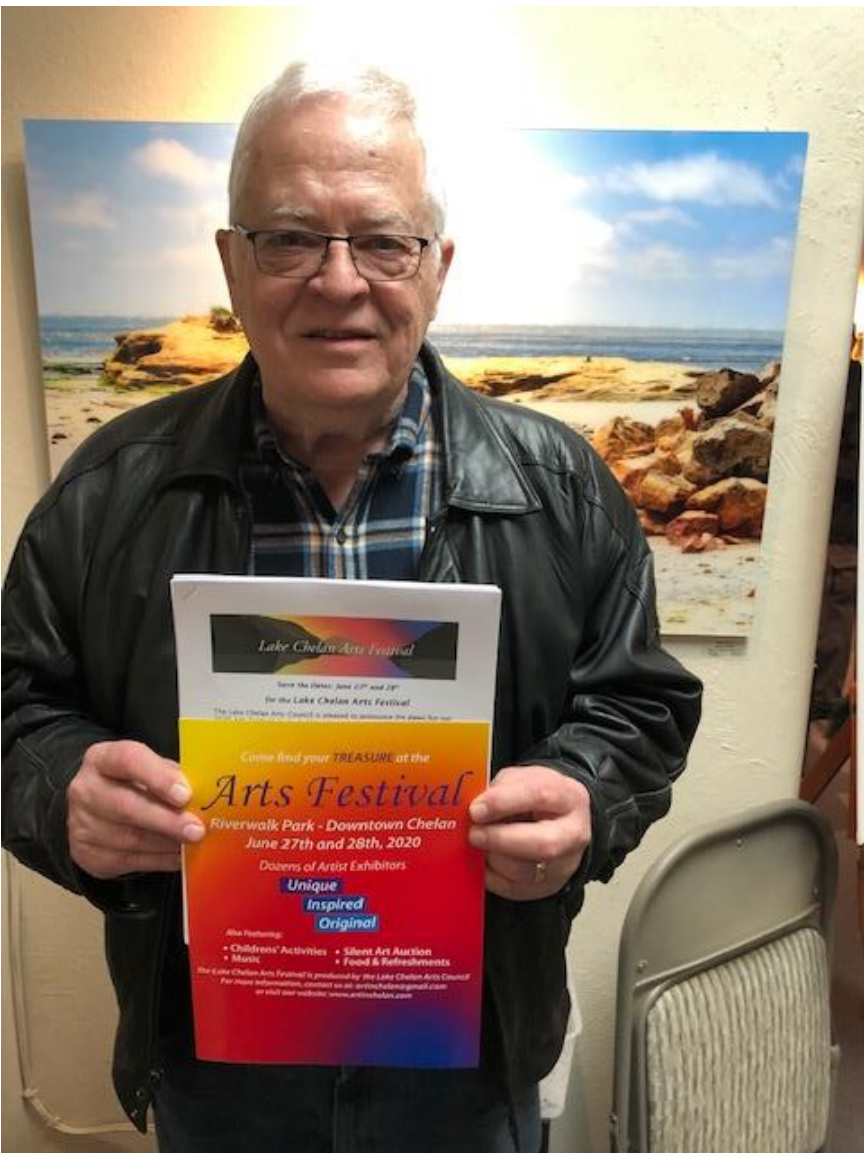

SOLD! Jean's "Railroad Crossing" went home with the Baumeisters.

We welcome glass artist Susan Henn to membership this month.

We are pleased to welcome our new neighbor who opened a retail shop last night. Best of luck to Micah Baker with her first try into business.

Dan Crandall, president of Lake Chelan Arts Council, dropped in to welcome artists to participate in the Lake Chelan Arts Festival June 27-8. Download application at artinchelan.com. We also have info at the gallery.

Jean has boxed note cards and sold $90 worth the first evening.
Total art sales for all artists amounted to over $600.

Jean O'Keeffe's show continues until February 27. We have a new entry on Feb. 28 & 29, 11am-3pm for our March-April exhibit.

March 6 will be our Members' Show Opening Reception and 11th Anniversary of Two Rivers Gallery
