

Two Rivers Gallery
FIRST FRIDAY
January 4, 2019

First Friday at
Two Rivers ART GALLERY
ART of the WEST

Featuring the oil paintings of Western artist Dean Rainey

Dean has participated in Western & Wildlife art shows throughout the Pacific Northwest including the Fred Oldfield Western Art Show & the Ellensburg National Western Art Show

January 4, 2019 • 5pm-8pm
Music by pianist Jeannie McPherson • Local wines • Complimentary Refreshments.
The gallery will have a whole new show of over 50 local and regional artists.

102 N. Columbia • Wenatchee (bottom of 1st Street) • Zriversgallery.com • 509-888-9504

Dean Rainey welcomes you to his show. It is our first show of 2019.

The gallery is a good place to meet and enjoy a new show each month.

Greeting the many who came during the opening were docents Carole Hiatt and Barbara Bainard.

Oh! What should I try.

And out in the West Wing...

Taking it all in... the art is part of our January/ February show.

Sweet sounds of the evening came from pianist Jeannie McPherson.

Our wines for the evening.

Dean enjoyed the evening as many compliments came from admirer's of his oil paintings.

"In Flight" an ink and watercolor on exhibit for the first time by new member Erica McClain.

SOLD! Congrats to Carole Hiatt for her sale of "Purple Twilight."

Terry Johnson teaches Ronnie Tuss about serving wine. Bridget Brown and Russ Hepler take time out in the Western Room.

Bridget checks out Terry's large painting

Welcome back Carole Rainy. Carole had taken a medical leave from being in charge of the refreshment table.

Susan Gromley and friend discuss Dean's painting of Killer whales in the Arctic.

Dean Rainey's show runs through Friday, January 25. New members may bring in art Saturday the 26th by calling Russ Hepler at 509-470-5944 for an appointment. Coming in February are Evelyn and Rick Williams watercolor & photography.