

FIRST FRIDAY

at

Two Rivers Gallery

July 5, 2019

John McCabe: Maximizing the Minimum

Featured artist John McCabe welcomes you to his colorful exhibit of minimalist art.

Attending the opening was Salina Danko. She brought a Link bus tour of folks to the gallery.

It is nice to see parents introducing their children to art. Playing soft tones on her hammered dulcimer is Amy Albright. This is her first time playing for the gallery.

On display is the winning entry of the "Spirit of Pybus" painted by Kmbri Bond.

On exhibit were the winners of this years "Plein Air Paint Out." Two full tables of great hors d'oeuvres is provided by our membership each month.

Friends and fellow artists attending were Terri Meenach (gallery treasurer), Linda Fee and Erica McClain.

Enjoying treats from a very crowded food room were the Kimmels. He is an art teacher with the Eastmont School District.

Brad Brisbine accepts the $200 prize for his oil painting that won first place in the gallery's 'Plein Air Paint Out' at Ohme Gardens on June 22. Sasha Syssoeva, right, won the $100 second place award. Our third place winner, Jen Evenhus, was not able to attend.

Brad Brisbine explained to those attending, the importance of painting in the out of doors. This year our paint out was held at Ohme Gardens in celebration of their 90th year.

Nicole Mirabelli Whiney, baby Mila and husband William stand in front of her father's wood sculpture. They want to continue showing Milo Mirabelli's work. William is a chef at the Sleeping Lady in Leavenworth.

Horace Silver of the Horace Silver Quintet (jazz group) and Jude Caesar chose the painting behind them as their favorite painting. It was painted by Terry Johnson and took 'Honorable Mention' in the 'Plein Air Paint Out.'

...And in the abstract room a Mirabelli sockeye feels right at home.

As the evening closes... John McCabe meets Don McKay.
John's show continues through Friday, July 26.

Sales for the evening included an acrylic painting by Carole Hiatt, a ceramic clay pot by Terry Johnson to a resident of Kansas City and a painting by Marilyn Weaver.
Congratulations to all our artists who make the gallery a community treasure.

In August we will feature the paintings of Julie Peterson.