IN CASE YOU MISSED

JUNE FIRST FRIDAY

JUNE 2, 2023

FEATURING Jan Cook Mack

Here is some of what happened at Two Rivers from 5pm - 8pm on Friday

Celebrating the return of Jan Cook Mack as our featured artist for June

Jan's show of her oil paints represents her present and past works. She now works in her gallery about 3 times a week and is making progress using her nondominant hand.

Jan welcomes you to take sense of the joys she sees in life through the works of nature she recreates on canvass.

Many friends dropped by to take in the show. Dan McConnell and wife Ann came to welcome Jan back for her 4th Two Rivers Gallery presentation since 2009.

Dan will be our featured artist coming up in July. Jan's close friend Skip (Right) helped put up the show and has been much help in promoting her work.

Friends dropping by, Marry Ann and “Dirt Deva” master gardener, Bonnie Orr. Another good friend from the Okanogan, Rod Weagant came by to give his best wishes for Jan’s show.

Peaceful music by Suzanne Grassell... Suzanne is appreciated for coming to perform after a day of work at the PUD plus being a dedicated mother for her three children.

The Johnsons (no relation) Terry & Adelle, poured wines from our local wineries who support the gallery.

Terry Johnson brought in his latest clay sculpture. His studio is now at his home. He continues to do commission work in clay and will make signs for business as he did for over 40 years on Wenatchee Avenue.

Kenny Ratliff stands by a sale he made of a Koi painted by Carole Hiatt. It was Kenny's first sale as a docent and first day of docent training. Congrats to Carole. Kenny spent many years as a high school teacher in California and Washington and is an accomplished artist.

Andrew Campbell, Plain WA, showed us one of his turned wood sculptures. He plans to join us starting in July.

The evening brought out visitors to the gallery as well as to the nearby Wenatchee Fountain. Next door at the Convention Center High School Graduation attendees took up most of the city parking. Jan's exhibit will continue until we have Entry for our July/August show. Entry will be July 2 & 3, 10am-2pm.

Winners of free Ohme Gardens admissions were drawn, and the winners are... Ohme Gardens is the last place to see or purchase paintings by Ginger Reddington. Ginger has moved out-of-State and no longer paints.

Art Alley at Pybus Market opened this evening with a show by Russ Hepler of his non-objective abstract art.
