

Gallery Celebrates its Thirteenth Year

In 2014 'Art' stood by Zoltar at the Pybus Market where he was given a fortune. That year Two Rivers Gallery had separated from the Museum and tried but was rejected as a 501 (c) (3) non-profit by the IRS the following year (bad fortune).

The gallery continued to grow and prospered because of the support of the community and the business model that was originally established where an artist run gallery, supported by its members, could successfully operate (good fortune).

We tried a second time for a 501 (c) (3) non-profit and...good fortune! Lucky thirteen.

The Presentation Committee

Thanks to members who volunteered to help with presenting the art. Sheri Trepina will meet with the following members at 1 on Saturday the 26th at the gallery. She will give a 15 minute workshop on how to hang the art before we begin to put it up. Members include:

Joyce Hiat, Jill Register, Cindy & Jim Uhrich, Marilyn Grover, Thom Blaylock, Jill Timm, Jeff Justice, Sasha Syssoeva, Lisa King, Marie Alice & Bruce Hurst, and Tara Bailey.

Our February show by Marilyn Weaver and Jeff Justice will end on Thursday the 24th.

News of Note:

- Want to help participate in a gallery function? We need help to distribute the 150 posters that go out each month. Presently the Board has done a major share of the work. Sometimes the featured artist is able to do part of the work. If you would like to help with handing out 10 or 15 posters let us know. It is fun and very helpful to get the word out about who we are.

- Terri Timpe was voted onto the Board February 10 as our permanent Treasurer. We thank Denise Marker for the work she did as treasurer. You may have received a check from Denise during her tenure. Nicki Isaacson's term on the Board has ended and since Nicki has retired from the Clinic she wants to spend more time with her aging parents and regaining her watercolor time with brush & palette. Nicki's ability to say the right words in our thank you letters will be missed.

- Board members Russ Hepler and Ronnie Tuss are battling Covid 19. We wish them well. Russ is pulling out of his experience and Ronnie is in the hospital as of this writing. Adelle Johnson has taken over as Board Secretary while Ronnie recovers.

- The Annual Members Meeting has always been well attended by the Board and rarely by the general membership.

This year the Board members will be at the Members Show and that is where you may meet them and give suggestions, or advice.

Marsha Thornton is teaching a family some skills in painting. The gallery is open to teach on a limited basis.

Jennifer and Marc

In January the Good Life Magazine interviewed Jennifer Evenhus and Chad Yenny. Jennifer has been a long standing member.

She has been featured artist and our website web master. When you go to 2riversgallery.org, Jen takes care to see that you are Represented well. Jen is also a nationally known artist of pastels and has taught many classes throughout the country.

We depend on Jennifer to be our coordinator of social media. Catch us on Facebook & Twitter.

Marc Dille shoots the show six times a year. Marc photographs at least one of your artworks and prepares to enter his work into our website.

Check to see your creative talent in the Exhibit (current exhibit) section. You will also find that we have an events page and newsletter page in case you missed them.
