

TWO RIVERS GALLERY

IN CASE YOU MISSED

FIRST FRIDAY

Opening Reception

April 1, 2022

No fooling, it all happened at the gallery!

Welcome to the Annual Watercolor Show

Wenatchee Watercolor Society

*Co-presidents Jennifer McIntyre and Linda Fee
Welcome you to the annual Watercolor Show!*

Visitors to the exhibit gathered from 5-8pm to see the show

Pianist Jeannie McPherson set the mood.

Two days before the official opening a watercolor by Nicki Isaacson sold. The 'early bird' got the rose

Bianchi Vineyards provided the wines. We always try to offer local wines at our First Friday events.

SOLD! Linda Fee sold her painting of Ukraine's President Zelenskyy. Linda is donating the profit to assist Ukrainian refugees.

Here with their wives were Dr. Joseph Tornabene, Neurology and Ben...? Palliative Care.

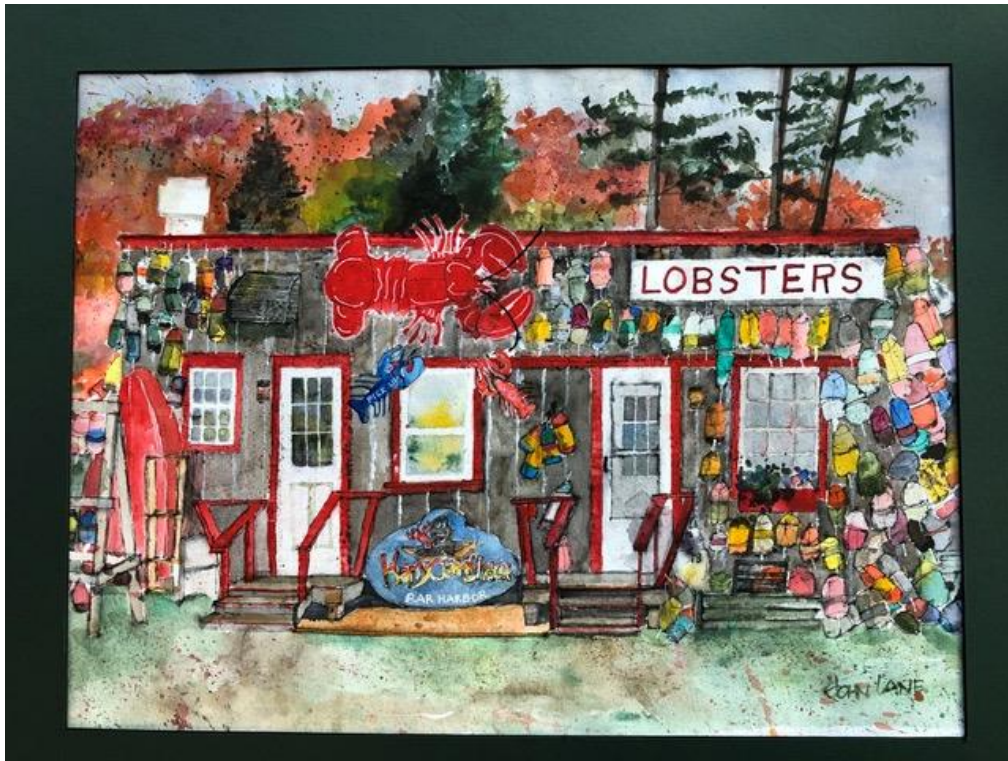

When you enter the Gallery you will first see this wall...but then at least one watercolor will be missing.

Congrats to Jennifer McIntyre for her watercolor sale of Valentine Muse.

It was 'Ladies Night Out' for these young ladies. The evening was balmy yet there were few people on the streets. Our door was open until 8pm.

Watercolorist John Lane is exhibiting his Bar Harbor painting of an 'across country' trip last summer that included a stop in Bar Harbor.

Dan and Nancy Crandall reminds us that our show ends on the 28th of April. Dan is the director of the Lake Chelan Arts Council and invites all artists to participate in their annual event June 25th & 26. See poster below.
