ABOUT TWO RIVERS GALLERY
Two Rivers Gallery promotes and provides a variety of visual arts experiences for all ages in North Central Washington through exhibitions, education, expression, and interaction. Two Rivers Gallery is a non-profit art gallery operated by local artists to make diverse and original art and art education accessible and affordable to the general public. In addition to teaching, displaying, and offering art for sale, the members enjoy belonging to a peer network that critiques, promotes, and supports their creativity.

SHOW RUNS UNTIL THE 31ST OF MARCH

Gallery hours: Wednesday - Saturday 11-4 pm & Sunday 1-4 pm
102 N. Columbia (bottom of 1st Street) • 2riversgallery.com • 509-888-9504

As you enter the gallery this month the featured artist is each gallery member. Most every member is showing a piece of their art in the front show rooms.

The large painting is by newest member Christian Sanchez from Toppenish.

Jeff Neher, one of our generous benefactors, invites us to the Members Show featuring over 60 artists participating. Jeff's company, Cordell, Neher & Company, PLLC helped us write the proposal that awarded Two Rivers Gallery recognition as a Non-Profit 501 (C) (3) by the IRS.

Some of the finest art can be found in the card rack.
It contains many of our artist's finest works.

The gallery is fortunate to have some of the finest musicians play at our First Friday events. Playing tonight is duo Glenn Isaacson on piano and Pat Thompson on bass. They will be back to play for us in June.

One wall shows work by Jan Cook Mack, Sheri Trepina, Brad Brisbine and Jen Evenhus.

Another wall includes work by Sasha Syssoeva, Dan McConnell, Jeff Justice & Terry Johnson. A dozen artist members under the direction of Sheri Trepina learned to set the show this month. More of our members are getting involved in helping to run the gallery.

Thanks to Northwest Public Radio (one of our corporate sponsors) for offering fine wines by Gilbert Cellars. Jones of Washington has just contacted us to offer wines for our future First Friday event. We hope to provide only local wines and appreciate the generosity of the best wines Washington has to offer.

Sold: Victoria Zambrano picked up a print from the print collection and found that the artist just happened to be in the room. She got to meet Barbara Conner Reed. A wonderful coincidence!

This gentleman finds that a glass of wine can help with choosing a painting, or at least critiquing one.

Tara Bailly stands next to her painting in the abstract room. Tara has volunteered to hand out our posters on Mission Street. Both she and Jen McIntyre and Thom Blaylock have donated their time to help us get the word out about our events.

Sold! Leigh Pobst chose this encaustic Orchard in Winter by Marie Alice Hurst. She said she had previously bought one of her stained glass pieces.

One of the most popular places to view art is in the West Wing of the gallery. Two Rivers is open 5 days a week, however, the West wing is open for viewing 7 days each week.

Sold! Congrats to Terry Johnson for his clay piece. Thank you Jen Evenhus for supporting the gallery.

Come help us celebrate our 13th anniversary. The Members Show continues until March 25. We will start a new show April 1 with the annual Wenatchee Watercolor exhibit.
