

Thanks to those who made Two Rivers Gallery possible in 2023

This list is not complete and we keep adding more workers and retiring many who were serving to make the gallery what it is today. We may have left out things you do and we are sorry if we missed something or someone. If you are left out please forgive. So many to thank in 2023 and we encourage many more members in 2024 to participate in Wenatchee's Artist-run art gallery of over 100 members.

33. If you want to help: A. We need a wine representative who will store the wines that you get from local wineries. Contact the wineries & present them with a letter the gallery has on file. You may contact 8-10 local wineries.

B. We need a librarian in charge of our books in our library and has a place to store books as we receive donations.

C. We could use help to hang the art at ENTRY up to 6 times a year. Sheri Trepina leads the committee of Jeff Justice, Marie Alice Hurst, Carl Ericson, Cindy Uhrich, Joyce Hiatt, Sasha Syssoeva Fair, Camille Greg, Jill Register, Steve Schwind, Tana Wood and Barbara Bainard.

D. We could use a person to take photographs of our EVENTS and compose dialogue that goes out to our membership, (In Case You Missed First Friday)

E. We could use another media helper to get the word out about the gallery, contact the written media & or social networks about our events.

F. We could use another helper to contact local businesses to become a supporting member of our gallery.

G. We need a couple of helpers to distribute 15 posters once a month. Thank you to Tara Bailey, Thom Blaylock, John Lane, Tana Wood, Barbara Bainard, plus thanks again to the Board members for their help and dedication.

Not included are the many docents who often donate more of their time, to our friends and members who have gifted us with donations, to those who were and will be featured artists and all artists who present their creative works for the public to enjoy. THANK YOU
